

Project: Mercury Tours

Module: Sign (SP=Login Page)

Author: Jinu Singh

Date: 2/1/2010

Note from Prakash: The test cases are written BEFORE the application is ready for test. Therefore, Expected are written BEFORE the application is tested. Actual Results is written when the the tester is testing the application.

| Test Case ID | Steps (Description) | Expected Results | Actual Results | Pass/Fail | Remarks |
|--------------|---|---|----------------|-----------|---------|
| SP001 | 1. Open a browser (IE8) | The browser opens. | | | |
| | 2. Enter the test URL in the address bar and hit enter. | The application should open successfully without any problems. | | | |
| SP002 | 1. On the page, there should be a text field for UserID. | Verify that the text box for UserID exists. | | | |
| SP003 | 1. On the page, there should be a text field for Password. | Verify that the text box for Password exists. | | | |
| SP004 | 1. Enter the correct UserID and Password in the UserID field and Password field. Click Sign In button. | The system allows the user to login with the correct user name and password. | | | |
| SP005 | 1. Enter incorrect UserID and correct password and click Sign In button | The system should display the following message, "UserID or Password does not match. Please try again." | | | |
| SP006 | 1. Enter correct UserID and incorrect password and click Sign In button | The system should display the following message, "UserID or Password does not match. Please try again." | | | |
| SP007 | 1. Enter incorrect UserID and incorrect password and click Sign In button | The system should display the following message, "UserID or Password does not match. Please try again." | | | |